Networking

Welcome to Networking!

The Networking Newsletter is a publication presented by HP Products. Our goal is to provide an effective means of "networking" with our customers in order to achieve common goals. HP Products was founded on the basic principles of honesty, loyalty, dedication and quality. We believe that to be successful in the fast changing world of the future, yesterday's principles must be applied to today's business.

Together, we can achieve and be successful.

American Quality Assessors (AQA), a provider of ISO9000 and QS9000 third party quality system registration accredited by the American National Accreditation Program for Registrars of Quality Systems, ANSI-RAB, and the National Accreditation Group of the Netherlands, RvA, announced that HP Products Company, Inc., Hartford City, Indiana, within the scope of the Manufacture and Assembly of Metal Stampings, has established a quality management system that is in compliance with the International Quality System Standard ISO9002:1994 and the Automotive Industry Action Group (AIAG) sanctioned interpretations of QS9000:1998.

The implementation of a compliant quality system will allow HP Products additional opportunities to provide the kind of service and quality our customers have come to expect. We thank all of our customers and employees for providing the support and hard work necessary to achieve this goal.
